Conducted meticulous research employing analytical methodologies and diverse data sources to glean valuable insights and trends. Collected, organized, and analyzed data with precision, using advanced tools and techniques. Performed thorough literature reviews, identifying knowledge gaps and contributing to research hypotheses. Collaborated effectively within interdisciplinary teams, assisting in experimental design, execution, and modification. Proficient in various research software and statistical analysis tools. Strong ability to articulate complex findings through comprehensive reports and presentations. Adhered to ethical standards and regulatory guidelines while ensuring project management and timeline adherence.

Information Security Teaching fellow

2022-2023

RIPHAH INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY, ISLAMABAD

Leveraging my strong grasp of the subject matter and effective communication skills, I designed and conducted engaging lectures, tutorials, and workshops. I guided students in understanding complex concepts, fostering critical thinking, and enhancing problem-solving abilities. Moreover, I provided individualized assistance, addressing students' inquiries, evaluating assignments, and offering constructive feedback. Collaborating with senior faculty, I actively contributed to course development and assessment strategies.
