Computer engineering

I have done my matriculation from pechs girls school karachi, after that I opt for pre engineering as my main in college and currently I'm doing bscs from szabist. Except that I'm a very innovative person which means I'm really good at creating things that are a bit different but they can easily help you to grab the attention of audience out there. Along with that I'm really hard working yet I give my 100% in my each and every job of mine.
